
Partners in Association Management Selected to Seminole 100

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.---- Partners in Association Management was named to Florida State University's inaugural Seminole 100 and will be formally recognized at a ceremony on Saturday, March 3, 2018 at FSU's University Center Club.

Presented by Florida State University, the Jim Moran Institute for Global Entrepreneurship, the FSU Alumni Association and Inc. magazine, the Seminole 100 recognizes the 100 fastest-growing businesses owned by FSU alumni.

Inc. magazine, using the criteria they developed for their annual Inc. 5000 list, calculated each company's compounded annual growth rate (CAGR) over the past three years to generate the ranking. Partners in Association Management will learn their official ranking during the awards ceremony in March.

Partners in Association Management is the only accredited association management company headquartered in Florida. It serves as the headquarters for over twenty state, regional and national trade associations, certification programs and individual membership not for profit organizations. It also provides consulting services to a number of other nonprofits nationally.

Bennett Napier, CAE, President/CEO of the firm received his Masters in Applied American Politics and Policy from the Florida State University in 2002.

"The Seminole 100 is an important initiative that recognizes entrepreneurial excellence," said Randy Blass, Executive Director of the Jim Moran Institute for Global Entrepreneurship. "It is open to all companies owned by FSU alumni who meet eligibility criteria, and recognizes those who are achieving growth, innovating, and making a difference in their communities."

To qualify for the Seminole 100, companies must have generated revenue by March 3, 2013, have generated at least $100,000 in revenue in 2013 and generated at least $2 million in revenue in 2016. Additionally, the business must be privately held, for profit, based in the U.S. and be owned or majority managed by an FSU alum.
